Through August 27                      Fame: Paintings by Robert Priseman

By literally painting celebrity icons on top of 18th and 19th-century religious icons of saints (purchased on e-bay), British artist Robert Priseman examines the contemporary obsession with celebrity and how in it has mimicked or even replaced religious faith. Selecting celebrities whose lives ended prematurely in self-destructive or otherwise traumatic ways, the Fame series repurposes the religious definition of martyrdom and redefines it for the sake of celebrity lifestyle and status. This exhibition celebrates one of the UAMA's most recent and major acquisitions—71 of the more than 100 works in the Fame series will be displayed and are now part of the UAMA permanent collection. The University of Arizona Museum of Art, 1031 N. Olive Road (pedestrian only), located at the southeast corner of Speedway Blvd. and Park, UA Campus. (520) 621-7567, www.artmuseum.arizona.edu.

Through September 2                      Cool Summer Nights

Beat the Arizona heat and enjoy a family-friendly outing during our popular Cool Summer Nights. So what makes these Saturday evenings so enchanting? The stunning sunsets, skies speckled with stars, night-blooming plants, and animals reappearing from their daytime naps. The desert comes alive at night as nocturnal animals awake. Bats perform aerial acrobatics in pursuit of dinner, beavers splash around in their pond, and scorpions glow green under black light. Bring your flashlight and explore, experience a live animal encounter, or participate in special nightly activities. Each Saturday has a different theme. Reservations recommended. 5-10 p.m., Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum, 2021 North Kinney Rd., Tucson, AZ 85743, (520) 883-5705, www.desertmuseum.org.

It will feature drop-in engineering and art activities for young children ages 5-12. Check the summer schedule for mentor-led robot building, art studio challenges, and more building adventures. Free with adult admission. The University of Arizona Museum of Art, 1031 N. Olive Rd. (pedestrian only), located at the southeast corner of Speedway Blvd. and Park, UA Campus. Gabe Zimmerman Triple Crown

The three-race series commemorates Gabe Zimmerman, a Tucson native who lost his life in the January 2011 shooting in Tucson. As we all know, running shows us the power within ourselves. If we can walk or run three miles in a hot summer night or get around the Saguaro loop, the ups and downs of daily life are certainly manageable. If we can climb A-Mountain, we can rise to our other challenges. Our goal is to celebrate Gabe and motivate the community to aspire to individual and collective greatness – to work alone and work with others towards those goals we find valuable. To celebrate living, community, and good will. To live with love, to live with passion to chase dreams.

- October 28-29 – TMC Get Moving Tucson Half-Marathon Events. You can walk or run the Tucson Lifestyle 5k, or you can run or walk the TMC A-Mountain Half-Marathon.
